

Lynne V. Cheney Resigns From Lockheed Martin Board

PRNewswire
BETHESDA, Md.

Lockheed Martin today announced the resignation of Lynne V. Cheney from the Lockheed Martin Board of Directors. Mrs. Cheney had been a member of the board since the time of the Lockheed-Martin Marietta merger in 1995. She also served as a director of Lockheed Corporation from 1994 until 1995.

Vance Coffman, Lockheed Martin Chairman and CEO said, "Lynne will be missed. She has been a strong member of our Board of Directors and an active member of our Finance and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees. On behalf of all our Board members and employees, I thank her and wish her well."

Headquartered in Bethesda, Md., Lockheed Martin is a global enterprise principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture and integration of advanced-technology systems, products and services. The Corporation's core businesses are systems integration, space, aeronautics, and technology.
