Lockheed Martin Executive Available To Discuss Secure Border Initiative At Vendor Industry Day

Lockheed Martin Vendor Industry Day Is Aimed at Attracting Potential Suppliers to Major Homeland Security Program

WHO: Jay Dragone, vice president, Integrated Border Security Solutions, Lockheed Martin Corp.

WHAT: Lockheed Martin is holding a local Vendor Industry Day to meet with potential suppliers for SBInet, the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) comprehensive multi-year plan to secure America's borders and reduce illegal immigration.

To build a world-class team of industry partners, Lockheed Martin is actively seeking small business participation through a series of supplier information and outreach sessions being held across the United States. Suppliers and universities with services, technologies, or product capabilities that might support SBInet can find more information and submit contact information at: http://www.lockheedmartin.com/secureborder

SBInet will create an integrated border security system to transform, integrate and expand technology and infrastructure systems throughout the border to reduce illegal entry to the United States. SBInet will integrate multiple state of the art systems and traditional security infrastructure into a single comprehensive border security suite.

WHEN: Tuesday, March 28, 2006. Mr. Dragone is available for media interviews during the event. Accredited members of the press are welcome to attend any portion of the Industry Day event which runs from 8:30am-1:00pm. Opening remarks begin at 9:00am.

WHERE: Hyatt Regency Buffalo
Two Fountain Plaza
