

Lockheed Martin Employees Build Bikes For Boys & Girls Club

KING OF PRUSSIA, Pa., March 30, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Approximately 30 Lockheed Martin [NYSE: LMT] employees will be building Huffy bikes for children from the Fairmount Boys & Girls Club on Thursday, Mar. 31, at the Lockheed Martin facility in King of Prussia, Pa.

The employees will be participating in a "Build-a-Bike Team Building Workshop®" and charity activity, organized by The Leaders Institute®. The day culminates with a presentation ceremony, where the bicycles that were created are given to children representing the Fairmount Boys & Girls Club.

Details for bike-building activity:

The bike building activity will be happening from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Building 100 facility on the Lockheed Martin Valley Forge campus in King of Prussia, Pa.

Address:
Lockheed Martin
230 E. Mall Blvd.
King of Prussia, PA 19406

Details for bike presentation to the Fairmount Boys & Girls Club representatives:

The bike presentation will be held at 4:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. The employees will make the presentation to a representative from the Fairmount Boys & Girls Club, along with 6 children who have been selected to be recipients of the bikes.

Members of the media who plan to attend the event need to R.S.V.P. to Marcia Beach-Malinowski as soon as possible in order to gain access to the facility.

About Lockheed Martin:

Headquartered in Bethesda, Md., Lockheed Martin is a global security company that employs about 140,000 people worldwide and is principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture, integration and sustainment of advanced technology systems, products and services. The Corporation reported 2009 sales of $45.2 billion.

Media Contact: Marcia Beach-Malinowski, office (610) 354-5315/mobile (609) 870-5070
marcia.a.malinowski@lmco.com

SOURCE Lockheed Martin