About the 9/11 Ride 2 Recovery Challenge:

In honor of the 10th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, a special 8-day, 530-mile bike ride will begin at Liberty State Park in New York City, with a view of the World Trade Center site. Along the way, riders will cross the Delaware River at Washington's Crossing, stop in Philadelphia, ride thru Valley Forge and Gettysburg, head west to the United 93 Memorial in Shanksville, Pa., and finish at the Pentagon Memorial. Participants will include survivors, family members, and first responders from 9/11, wounded heroes from the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan, and the general public. Supporters of the 9/11 Challenge ride include UnitedHealthcare, USO, and American Legion Family. For more information see the 9/11 Challenge website.
